Spiritual “To Do List”
(things God has shown me today)

God Wants to Meet with You

“The Lord would speak to Moses face to face, as a man speaks with his friend. Then Moses would return to the camp, but his young aide Joshua son of Nun did not leave the tent” (Exodus 33:11).

Joshua refused to leave the tabernacle. God had been there speaking face to face with Moses, and the glory that Joshua sensed in that place drew him.

Up to this point, he had been following Moses, but something about the presence of the Lord attracted him. In the verse above it appears Joshua thought, I am not going to leave this place of God’s presence. I want to be where God is.

Moses had taught him that the glory came after spending time with God. He had been privileged to see Moses experience times of intimate fellowship with the Lord. During those times, Joshua began developing a longing for the glory he saw on Moses. Perhaps a hunger was being borne in him for a personal visitation of God.

Do you sometimes feel a longing to be in God’s presence? Have you been challenged to make prayer a more significant part of your life when you’ve observed someone who has the peace and confidence that comes from having been alone with Him?

Sometimes the Holy Spirit gives a gentle prompting, a desire to draw near God. Martyn Lloyd-Jones cautions, “Always respond to every impulse to pray. I would make an absolute law of this —always obey such an impulse.”

I give You thanks, dear Lord, for every time I feel drawn by the Spirit to pray. Help me to spend much time in the “Tent of Meeting,” the place where You promise to meet and speak to us.

“For the generations to come this burnt offering is to be made regularly at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting before the Lord. There I will meet you and speak to you; there also I will meet with the Israelites, and the place will be consecrated by my glory” (Exodus 29:42, 43).

Now in Christ Jesus
You who once were far off have been brought near by the blood of Christ.
